

The First Spring

Rabiul Awwal, the first spring. A beautiful name for the beautiful month in which the Most Beautiful of Creations ﷺ came to this world, bringing light to the darkness, spreading hope of goodness and essentially, bringing a new spring. A time in which everything blooms, hope is ignited and the sense of a fresh beginning fills the air. This is the month we are in, a month that can be used to bring a change in our lives.

Let us use this month to ignite and kindle the love of Habeeb ﷺ in our hearts, by spending these precious days reciting abundant Durood Shareef drenched in love and sincerity, leaving our tongues moist and fragrant. Let us endeavour to perform the greatest amount of Blessed Sunnahs as we can, keeping the intention in mind to carry them with us throughout the year.

As long as we have the correct intention and the will power to continue, a little can become a lot. Every small effort, done with sincerity, counts in the courts of Allah Ta'ala. This month, we should set our goals making sure they are achievable, and stay positive that we can achieve them. Most importantly, let our love for Nabi ﷺ be our motivating factor.

What is life without the Sunnah? Where is the loyalty if we abandon it? How can we not sacrifice for the One that strived for us? How can we forget the Beloved of Allah ﷺ?

The Beloved of Allah ﷺ, the epitome of love.
